The sustainable development of an enterprise is not only limited to its operation, but also needs to fulfill its social responsibilities. Dr. Ko LaiHung has spent no effort to serve the community and give back to the society for many years, from business operation to social life. In terms of corporate operation, Dr. Ko LaiHung and all staff of Accel Group have been focusing on energy saving and efficiency enhancement of electrical and mechanical engineering works. In addition, the Group established a wholly-owned subsidiary, Accel Green Building Limited, to promote clean energy, energy saving and carbon reduction related businesses. From the perspective of social sustainable development, the Group have formulated and adjusted the Group’s business decisions and directions in a reasonable manner, and integrated social responsibility into the Group’s business layout. At the same time, Dr. Ko LaiHung also played an active role in public welfare and anti-epidemic support activities, leading the staff of Accel Group to distribute anti-epidemic bags to the elderly in Tsuen Wan District, and also donated to support the anti-epidemic and Construction Industry Caring Campaign - Fight against COVID-19, and connecting the representatives of the industry to distribute anti-epidemic supplies to a few 100,000 construction workers in Hong Kong; He was also the president of the Hong Kong Pingtan Clansmen Association and was awarded the “Gold Medal for Humanity” by the Fujian Red Cross for his generous donation and donation of a large amount of anti-epidemic supplies to the frontline medical staff during the most deficient epidemic supplies. Dr. Ko LaiHung’s ability to receive the above awards would not have been possible without giving the society an opportunity for Accel Group to grow, but will also become the key pillar for Dr. Ko LaiHung to set a good example, inspiring all the staff of Accel Group towards sustainable development.

Dr. Ko Laihung, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Group, said, “We are honored to receive the Honors and Awards, which brings all the efforts of the entire staff of Accel Group and the recognition from all walks of life. Today, this honor is not only an intensification but also a new start. Sustainable development is an inevitable trend in the current situation. Looking ahead, the Group will also take the responsibility of supporting the development of the society, actively explore more appropriate operation methods to promote business development, and integrate the awareness of sustainable development and social responsibility into the Group's business strategy and culture, actively assume and perform corporate responsibility, and wish to work together with all parties to give back to the society."
